

Calvary' Sunday School Rally Kicks Off Today

Today marks the kickoff of the Sunday School Rally at Calvary Baptist Church, 23301 Main St., Wilmington, according to Rev. Vincent Irwin, pastor.

The contest will last for eight weeks. The goal is to reach an enrollment of 400 in the Sunday School. Pastor Irwin stated that the new Sunday School building, consisting of 14 new classrooms, is now in use.

There are classes for all ages — from two years through adult. Classes begin at 9:30 a.m. A nursery is provided at all services. The adult class is having a time of fellowship from 9:30 to 10 a.m. over coffee and donuts to welcome new members to the class.

Rev. Irwin is beginning a new study, starting in the book of Genesis, and extended an invitation to newcomers in the area to join his adult class.

Pastor Irwin is a native of Oklahoma and a graduate of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. The church is the largest independent church in the Harbor area and is fundamental in doctrine.

The church has a youth group which includes all ages from 13 years through college age. It has a Sunday School class of approximately 50 young people and a youth group which meets at 6 p.m.

Out of this group has grown a choir which sings at the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service each Sunday.

Mrs. Vincent Irwin, youth director, extended an invitation to all young people in this area to come and get acquainted.

Rev. Irwin stated that he has begun a "through the Bible" teaching program in the Wednesday evening Bible study class. He is now in the last chapters of Genesis.

The church plans to have a fall festival starting Oct. 15.

Walteria Church Groundbreaking Ceremonies Held

The Walteria Baptist Church held groundbreaking of its new educational building Sept. 16 at 10:30 a.m.

Burt Scott of First Baptist Church of Torrance is general contractor. The proposed building will provide 12 Sunday School classrooms and an auditorium, with kitchen and dining facilities. It will be a 2-story structure.

The Rev. James W. Reid announced that at the 11 a.m. service the pulpit was filled by the Rev. Dale Payne, missionary to Peru. In the evening two former pastors of the church shared the pulpit. The Rev. Joe Nash has returned from a term of service in the Sudan and his brother, the Rev. Ed Nash, presently of Garden Grove, directed former friends.

Rally Day will be celebrated in the Sunday School today when the Rev. Bob Nichols and his two sons will bring their enthusiasm with trombone and trumpet. He will bring Little Jimmy and his Myrtary House for the children.

Area Minister Chosen to Head Religious Meet

The Rev. Maynard Midthun, representing Christ the King Lutheran Church of Torrance, will be dean of the Metropolitan (South) Conference Church Workers Institute of the American Lutheran Church, South Pacific District, today and tomorrow at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Torrance.

Training for his part in the institute was received during a week-long District Instructor's Institute held for 199 leaders in the ALC on the campus of California Lutheran College last month in Muncie, Ind., Thousand Oaks.

With the program built around the theme "The Faith We Teach," Rev. Midthun will direct instruction of adult lay members of Metropolitan South congregations of ALC in methods of teaching and leading others in their own church Sunday schools.

Institute instruction is divided into 10 departmental sessions according to age levels. The institute is one of 15 scheduled by South Pacific District during September and October, 13 in California and one each in Arizona and New Mexico.

Revival Crusade to Begin With Evangelist Peacock

The Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor of the Torrance Foursquare Gospel Church, Arlington and Sepulveda, announced a Revival Crusade with Evangelist Guy Peacock will begin today.

The 10:45 a.m. worship hour subject will be "when God Became Man."

The 7:15 p.m. Evangelistic service subject will be "Christ in You the Hope of Glory." Revivals will be held week nights, Tuesday through Friday, at 7:30 p.m. Music with outstanding talent will be presented during the campaign. "The Kings Four" quartette, Trios and solos will be presented.

FROM OKLAHOMA

Evangelist Guy Peacock, who makes his home in Los Angeles, is a native of the state of Oklahoma. He has spent several years in both pastoral and evangelistic ministry, and has conducted successful revivals across the nation.

The Rev. Peacock has been an officer of the Foursquare organization for many years and has served as a member of the faculty of L.I.F.E., Bible College in Los Angeles. He resigned from that position a few years ago to re-enter the field of evangelism.

CONCERN FOR YOUTH

"The evangelist has a deep concern for the youth of our land, having had considerable experience as a Youth Camp and Bible Conference speaker. He is a student of Bible Prophecy, and of world affairs, and will be bringing messages on these important subjects.

"The Rev. Peacock reports many cases of healing of various sickness and disease in answer to prayer in his meetings and will be praying for the sick during the present campaign. He believes the transforming power of the gospel of Christ is the only remedy for the ills of our sick world today, and is laboring earnestly to apply that remedy," the Rev. Lowen said.

Sacred Concert Series Begins Today at Church

The first of a series of Sacred Concerts will be held today at 7 p.m. at the Lomita Missionary Church.

John Webb is the featured soloist for this event. "Webb has one of the most profound bass voices in the musical world. He was featured at Forest Home Preacher's Prayer Conference and has just now returned from a large meeting in Oakland. He has sung the bass role in the opera, 'Faust' and recently appeared in Burbank's Starlight Bowl as soloist on the 'Night in Italy' program narrated by Cameron Mitchell." The Rev. Earl B. Leonard said.

A music critic, covering this presentation, stated, "Webb displayed a voice of exceptional evenness with a range not possessed by any Metropolitan Opera bass in the last three decades."

The Rev. Leonard will be preaching at the 11 a.m. service at the church on the subject "The Peace of God." Sunday School starts at 9:45 a.m.

A get-acquainted social is planned for Mr. and Mrs. Shively after the evening service tonight.

Suffering Topic

Robert A. Wells, pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita, will speak at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services today on "A Job for Job."

"In the Old Testament, the oldest book is no doubt Job. Almost as long as man has been keeping records, God has been seeking to teach man the art of suffering gracefully. A lesson from Job is in order today, for man has not yet learned to suffer without blaming God. What question is heard more often than 'Why did God do this to me?' Here is another Job for Job," Wells explained.

Pathfinder Club Joins Camporee

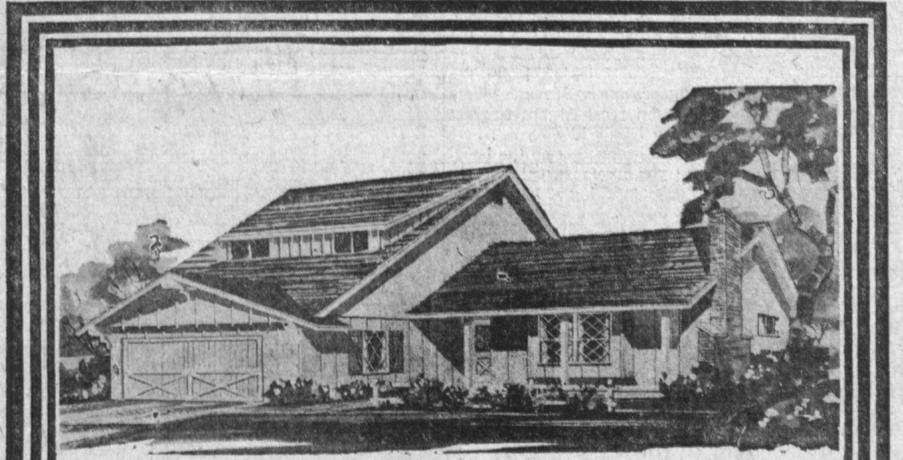

Pathfinder Youth Club members of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., will return tonight from a Southland-wide "Camporee" at Lancaster.

At the giant youth meet members of the local church youth club participated in contests with members of 50 other Pathfinder church youth clubs in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Ventura and Kern counties.

"This annual event helps our club members develop outdoor camping skills which prove valuable throughout their entire life," said John Dillon, Torrance Pathfinder Club director.

Dillon said the Camporee was held at the Antelope Valley Fair Grounds in Lancaster. Hundreds of youngsters representing Adventist youth clubs throughout the four-county area attended the event.

Friday afternoon, according to Dillon, local club members pitched their tents and made ready their area of the youth encampment. Saturday featured religious services and nature hikes.
